Report of Constitution and By-Laws Committee

1. At the request of the Senate Chairman, the CBL committee considered the procedure for calculating the number of faculty members in a college to determine senate representation when the appointment of a faculty member is terminated during the academic year and his replacement is not on campus at the time of the tally. All members felt that if the replacement has received and accepted a contract for the coming year one person may be counted.

2. The CBL committee has considered the charge and membership of the University Manual Committee. (By-Laws, Section 4.29, pg. 35). We propose that the charge be amended by replacing items 4.29.1, 4.29.2, and 4.29.3 with the following:

4.29 Committee on the University Manual

4.29.1 To assure that all duly adopted regulations, practices and policies are properly incorporated in the Manual and that no changes or additions be made that have not been approved by the appropriate authorities.

To review all proposals which have implications for content, intent or organization of the Manual with the view to recommending to the Senate such changes as could assure conformation to the organization of the Manual and preclude contradiction of any of its parts.

4.29.2 Membership

Appointed: Two faculty members and the Secretary of the Senate (Registrar), and the Secretary of the Faculty.
