REPORT OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINATION OF COURSES TO BE DELETED, 1967-1968

(Appendix "C")

In arriving at the list of courses not taught during the past four academic years (1963-1964 to date), the following procedure was followed:

1. A complete list of course offerings was prepared from the semiannual Schedules of Classes covering the period.

2. This list was adjusted by deleting from it courses offered on a regular basis, such as English 1 and 2, Chemistry 1 and 10, etc.

3. The adjusted list was then examined in the Office of the Registrar to reveal those courses listed in the Schedules of Classes but not taught.

4. The list was then corrected by deleting from it courses added to the Catalogue in the period 1964-1965 to date; course number changes were accounted for in this step.

5. A final correction was made to take into account courses listed but not taught during the Spring Semester, 1967.

   Note: Multi-numbered courses such as "Problems" courses (191, 192 or 190-198) were treated as single courses and not listed for deletion if one of the sequence met the time requirement.

6. The final listing was submitted to the Faculty Senate Committee on Curricular Affairs for review and recommendation; the Chairman was instructed to forward the list to the academic deans and department chairmen for action. (see appendix

7. The Committee reviewed the requests of the academic deans and department chairmen, adjusted the list submitted by the SubCommittee, and forwarded to the Editor of the Catalogue, the Registrar, and the President the final list of courses to be deleted for want of having been taught during the past four academic years. The courses were reported to the Faculty Senate in a regular report of the CCA.
