The following proposals from the Report of the Ad Hoc Committee on Higher Education and Disadvantaged Students in Rhode Island were endorsed by the Faculty Senate.

1. A state-sponsored modification of the Upward Bound concept to accommodate 50 additional disadvantaged children, some beginning as early as the 8th grade.

2. A pre-matriculation program of identification, recruitment, preparation, and admission of and support for 50 disadvantaged young people by the three institutions of higher education beginning in June of 1968.

3. A full and partial special scholarship program to provide the means for sizeable groups of qualified black and other disadvantaged students to attend Rhode Island Junior College, Rhode Island College, and the University of Rhode Island.

4. Institutional involvement programs sponsored by the state-supported institutions of higher education, in cooperation with private colleges and universities.

5. To endorse in principle an Urban Educational Center to be established under the aegis of the Board of Trustees in the City of Providence to open in September of 1968, provided that the Center itself does not become a degree-granting institution.
