THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE AND GENERAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE'S PROPOSAL FOR A REVISED UNIVERSITY-WIDE GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

1. On March 6, 1975, the Faculty Senate approved the first recommendation of the University College and General Education Committee as follows:

Recommendation #1:

There shall be 5 General Education divisions:

A - Humanities
B - Natural Sciences
C - Social Sciences
D - Human Communications
E - Applied Sciences

a. The first three divisions (A, B, and C) shall include essentially the same subject matter that is included in these divisions at the present time.

b. Division D shall be expanded to be a broad human communications division and would include certain courses, concerned with written and oral communications and related communication skills and theory, drawn from areas such as English, Speech, Journalism, and Foreign Languages.

c. Division E is intended to provide diversity by adding courses in Applied Sciences, such as those typically (but not exclusively) offered by the Professional Colleges.

2. On May 1, 1975, the Faculty Senate approved the second recommendation:

Recommendation #2:

Each student in every curriculum and in every college shall distribute 45 credits among the divisions in the following way:

a. A minimum of 9 credits in each of the divisions A, B, and C and a minimum of 6 in division D. The remaining credits may be distributed in any way among the five divisions.

In addition the Senate voted to amend recommendation #2 by deleting section 8.41.11. However, the vote to delete was invalid because a motion from the floor to amend the Manual may not be voted upon at the meeting it is introduced. The motion to delete 8.41.11 is among the items of Unfinished Business for Fall, 1975:

That section 8.41.11 be deleted from the University
Manual when Recommendation #2 goes into effect.
