FACULTY SENATE

MINUTES

Faculty Senate Executive Committee Meeting #26 - March 15, 1978

1. The meeting was called to order at 2:00 p.m. in the Faculty Senate Office, Chairperson Gutchen presiding. All members were present except Ms. Grubman who was excused.

2. President Honman, Assistant Vice President Pezzullo, Dean Marks, Professor Rogers, Professor Swonger and Ms. Alexander joined the Executive Committee for discussion of the feasibility of appointing an ad hoc committee to coordinate implementation of general education objectives and mechanisms into a final proposal for consideration by the Senate. Following discussion, the Executive Committee agreed to consult with Professor Rogers on the composition of the subcommittee of the University College and General Education Committee to consider the whole issue of general education.

3. The Executive Committee agreed to meet on Monday, March 20, 1978 at 2:30 p.m.

4. The issue was raised concerning accounting procedures relative to paying bills and its effect on the academic program. It was decided to invite Vice President Petrecelli to a meeting to discuss the Executive Committee's concerns.

5. A letter was read from the Graduate Student Association addressed to the Chairperson of the Board of Regents concerning the inadequacy of budgetary allocation for the library for staff and collection acquisitions.

6. Drafts of letters addressed to Professor Lott of the Teaching Effectiveness and Facilities Committee and President Honman, respectively, were reviewed and approved for sending.

7. The committee decided to invite Vice President Ferrante to discuss the advisability of reviewing University College before a new dean is appointed.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Anne M. Christner
Secretary / pro tem
